II. In proceeding to the streets assigned them—organizations will march on 7th Ave. if required to form west of 5th Ave.—and on Lexington Ave. if required to form east of 5th Ave., and if necessary to cross 5th Ave. will do so south of 23d St.—or north of 57th St.—no organization will march on 5th Ave. in proceeding to the place of formation.

III. Governors of States and their Staffs will take carriage at the 5th Ave. Hotel at 8.30 A. M., and proceed by way of Madison Ave. to East 57th St., where the carriages will be formed four abreast. The Governors' carriages on the right of each group of four. The Staff on the left. Other invited guests, officials, and delegations, will take carriage at the Windsor Hotel, 47th St. and 5th Ave., at the same hour. Carriages will approach this point by way of Madison Ave. through 46th St. to 5th Ave. to 47th St. to Madison Ave., thence to the several streets designated as the place of formation—where they will form two abreast. New York and other Historical Societies, the Chamber of Commerce and other commercial associations and exchanges will take carriage at 8 o'clock at the Victoria Hotel, and proceed by way of Madison Ave. to the streets designated for them, where they will form two abreast.

IV. The Grand Marshal's Staff and Aides, and the 1st Troop Phila. City Cavalry will report to him at 8 A. M. at the Windsor Hotel. The troops forming on 5th Ave. facing the hotel.

V. No delays are to be made in formation, awaiting organizations that may be late, such organizations must take positions in the rear of their division—all organizations not military will march eight abreast with interval of three yards between the sections.

VI. The Head of Column will be put in motion at 9 A. M. The line of march will be down 5th Ave., to 14th St., to Broadway, to Bowling Green, where the column will be reviewed and dismissed. When the rear of the escort has turned into 5th Ave., the carriages on 57th St. will move out following the escort at a distance of twenty yards, followed in their turn by the carriages on 56th, 55th, 54th, 53d, 52d and 51st Streets, which, as they move into the Avenue, will form four abreast. Each group of carriages will maintain a distance of eight yards from the preceding group. The carriages on the right to be the guide, and each of the other carriages of the group will keep abreast of it; great care should be taken not to increase the prescribed distance.

VII. The Head of each Division will move out and take its position in the General Column when the rear of the preceding division has passed. In passing Madison Square the guide of the column will march parallel with the 5th Ave. curb line.

VIII. When opposite Exchange Place the Staff of the Grand Marshal and the special escort will move into line simultaneously, faced to the left—the artillery in column of sections or pieces along the curb. The column of carriages will halt momentarily while the escort is forming line, and when the formation is completed will move forward, the guests to be saluted by the escort.

IX. Upon reaching the Review Stand the carriage on the right of each group will successively move forward to the south end of the stand, the other three carriages will turn to the right and follow in the rear of the first, halting in front of the stand, permitting their occupants to alight, and will then move forward through Whitehall into State St. to Battery Place, forming two abreast along the easterly curb of State Street as closely together as practicable. The "Washington Coach" will turn to the right into Battery Place through Washington St. northward.

X. On approaching the point of review a slight change of direction to the left is necessary.

XI. The column will be reviewed by the Governor of the State of New York, assisted by the Governors of the original 13 States.

XII. After the review the U. S. Troops will march through Whitehall St. to the Battery and embark. Organizations, returning northward by Elevated R. R., march through Whitehall St. to the South Ferry Station. All organizations marching northward and to the East of Broadway and 5th Ave., march through Beaver and William Sts., those marching northward and to the West of Broadway and 5th Ave. march through Battery Place and Washington Street. In passing Bowling Green the fronts of subdivisions will be reduced by breaking files to the rear from the left. Commanding officers are strictly enjoined to prevent a check in the march past the Review Stand.

XIII. At the conclusion of the review the carriages will take up the guests at the south end of the Review Stand and move in a single line, escorted by the Grand Marshal, Staff and 1st Troop Phila. City Cavalry through Whitehall, Beaver, William and Pine Sts. to the rear of the Sub-Treasury Building, where the guests will alight, thence into Nassau St. to Cedar St., to William St., to Pine St., and await further orders.
